HISTORICAL

Walk Through Berchtesgaden

900 Jahre
 Berchtesgaden
 1102-2002

History-focused Self-guided Tour of Berchtesgaden. 900 YEARS OF HISTORY

Walk back in time to the founding of Berchtesgaden and discover its fascinating 900-year-old history.

The first settlement was called „PERTHERSGADEN“ and the Augustine Abbey was founded around 1100. From 1559 the little prince-provostry became an independent principality but

= good view

Berchtesgaden was incorporated into the kingdom of Bavaria in 1810.

The duration of the walk takes approx. 2 hours.

During the walk, there are 2 sections of 10 % grades. The path is well-marked.

1 Kur- und Kongresshaus

Starting point. Built in 1973 Center for conventions and events with a hall for up to 800 participants, a restaurant, café and cinema.

2 Old Berchtesgaden Cemetery

Founded in 1685, protected by the historical society; famous people buried here: Richard Voss, Moritz Mayer, Anton Adner (1705 - 1822) the oldest citizen of Berchtesgaden who transported handmade goods (wooden items and toys) far and wide on foot. At the age of 113 he climbed Munich's cathedral towers.

3 Franciscan Church

Built in 1480, late Gothic church with two naves. First a convent of the Augustine Order and from 1695 until the present day, a Franciscan monastery. Located inside part of the monastery is the Berchtesgaden National Park Info Center - used until 1973 as the Berchtesgaden Court House. Across the street: The Berchtesgaden Folk Theater (Bauerntheater) and Hotel Watzmann - a brewery from 1828 until 1908 called Oberbräu.

4 Sun Promenade

The sun promenade begins behind the National Park information center. Leading past Martin's fountain, the trail takes you back into Maximilianstrasse. Continue along the sidewalk to...

5 Luitpoldpark

Luitpold statue (erected in 1893 during the reign of Prince Regent Luitpold 1886 - 1912) stand in the center of this small park.

5a Königliche Villa

The Royal Villa (on the slope) built between 1849 and 1852 in Florentine style as a summer residence of the Kings of Bavaria by King Maximilian II (ruled from 1848 to 1864). Continue along the footpath (approx. 200 meters with a 10 % upgrade) until just before the Alpenhotel Kronprinz and turn right into Brandholz to the ...

6 Soleleitungsweg

Continue along the path to the Calvary with its 4 Stations of the Cross, built in 1760 by Prince Provost Michael Balthasar.

- Alternative option: walk up to Schloss Fürstenstein built in 1758
- Alternative option: short-cut back down to town center. Or continue to:

7 Soleleitungsteg

Also called Reichenbachsteg: Located halfway along the path is the Reichenbach Plaque - builder of the brine pipeline (Soleleitung) in 1816 - 1817 which runs from Berchtesgaden via Ramsau and Wachtelr to Bad Reichenhall.

- Possibility: walk up to the Gletschertöpfen
- Another possibility: short-cut back to the town center over the Doktorbergstrasse.

At the woodcarver's shop Gramiller (approx. 200 meters 10 % upgrade) continue along Doktorbergstrasse to ...

8 Altes Krankenhaus (Old Hospital)

with a steep gabled roof, it was built in 1845 with the financial help of King Ludwig I, from 1903 used as an apartment house.

9 Weinfeldhof

Former vineyards of the Prince Provostry from 1400 on.

- Possibility: continue up the hill to Cafe Lockstein which offers a beautiful panoramic view over the Berchtesgaden area. Or continue via Nagllehen/Kreis Krankenhaus to Hilgerkapelle (chapel), built in 1725.

10 Locksteinstraße

Via the Locksteinstrasse and the "Am Rad" road, you reach Adelsheim Castle, built in 1614, that now houses the folklore museum with Berchtesgaden handicrafts.

11 Nonntal

Former Augustine convent gave it its name "nuns' valley". One of the oldest settlements in Berchtesgaden, it is a self contained compound constructed in the alpine style. The Schachern cross of 1625 is an old blessings site. The Kanzlerhaus was built in 1560; the Catholic parish house made of local marble, built in 1841.

12 Rathausplatz Berchtesgaden

Formerly the Schrankenhalle, built 1873 - 1875.

Mundkochhaus: former Chancellor house built in 1643 and located just above the town hall. The town hall fountain was erected in 1913, to commemorate the centennial of Berchtesgaden being a part of Bavaria. St. Andreas Parish Church built in 1700, still stands in its original form.

13 Berengarplatz

This is the square between the Parish Church and the Abbey Church. In 2002 it was inaugurated on the occasion of Berchtesgaden's 900 year celebration in memory of Count Berengar von Sulzbach who fulfilled his mother's pledge to found an Augustine College of Cannons.

14 Schlossplatz

The first arch displays a sundial and seven coats of arms. This is the entrance to the pedestrian zone. Privileged location - one of the most beautiful squares in the Bavarian alps. Crown Prince Rupprecht fountain, built in 1960, commemorating 150 years of Berchtesgaden being part of Bavaria.

Stiftskirche (Abbey Church)

Built by the Augustine monks; three-naved Gothic structure with an attractive early Gothic Chancel (1283 - 1303); impressive tombstones of former Prince Provostry from the 15th to the 19th centuries; steeples hit by lightning and rebuilt in 1866.

Royal Castle

Romanesque cloister from around 1200 with interesting pillars and pilasters. The castle's museum houses a collection unparalleled in southern Bavaria. Well worth the visit.

Arcades

Frescos from Josef Hengge 1929 and 1952 as a reminder of the fallen soldiers of both world wars. On the Neuhaus archway a bronze plaque by A. Essler commemorates the bombing of Obersalzberg on April 25th 1945.

15 Marktplatz

The Neuhaus inn was built by Prince Provost Jacob II Puttrich as an abbey tavern. Fountain erected in 1677 by Maximilian Heinrich (Prince Provost as well as Prince Elector of Cologne), renovated in 1860. Hirschenhaus built in 1594, former guest house, rear of building displays monkey facade dating from 1610.

16 Kurgarten

Former castle gardens of the Prince Provostry and later of the Bavarian Kings. Bronze statue of Ludwig Ganghofer from 1925 (at the cafe). To the right, Hotel Post Leithaus - oldest public lodging in Berchtesgaden (first mentioned in 1328).
